

Passion plus Knowledge equals Your Freedom

STAFF PROFILE:

SARAH EIFERMANN, PRINCIPAL MORTGAGE PLANNER

Highly regarded in the industry for product knowledge and commitment to client and education, Sarah has been a Mortgage Broker for almost 7 years.

One of five children, Family and all that goes with it, is important to Sarah,

She holds a Bachelor of International Relations, (which is Politics, History and Economics); and also currently completing her Diploma in Finance (Mortgage Broking). This makes her a competent and skilled critic of the economic climate on both the global and domestic stage.

Sarah has written policy on Consular Law for the Government of Timor Leste (East Timor), and she has recently been featured in the Australian Broker magazine, published by Key Media; and is also an Industry Expert for Your Mortgage Magazine.

Sarah is a past committee member of the Nillumbik HomeBiz Network, and past facilitator of the HomeBiz Eltham Business Breakfasts. She is an active member of the community and firmly believes in giving back to the locals. As such, Sarah is involved in numerous local Programs and is a past member of the Montmorency Football Club Committee.

Sarah has not only worked in the Mortgage Industry, but also Advertising and more recently Construction; for Commercial and Residential Builders. Her previous roles have included Sales, Customer Service, Administration, Accounts and Project Management.

Not one for complacency, she strives for success in all aspects of her life. Attentive and caring; Sarah listens, but is also bold enough to tell it how it is.

She loves to travel, loves to talk, enjoys walking and boxing as past-times, as well as catching up on a local game of footy. Sarah lives for her family and friends and has a strong moral set from which she operates.

If you are yet to meet her, call her up for a chat as she'd be more than happy to speak with you.

A people-person at heart, Sarah sees herself as an educator and ultimately would love to be in the public sphere sharing her knowledge.
